

The Illinois Department of Human Services' Division of Rehabilitation Services (DRS) is the state's lead agency serving individuals with disabilities. DRS works in partnership with people with disabilities and their families to assist them in making informed choices to achieve full community participation through employment, education, and independent living opportunities.

DRS is committed to provide services that ensure youth with disabilities have the knowledge, skills, and experience they need to successfully transition into the world of work.

DHS/DRS' Transition Initiatives for Youth include:

- Secondary Transitional Experience Program (STEP)
- Interagency Collaboration
- Education Services offered through three schools
- Next Steps

For more information about DRS services for youth with disabilities, contact:

Illinois Department of Human Services
Division of Rehabilitation Services
100 W. Randolph
Suite 5-300
Chicago, Illinois 60601

312-814-4050 (Voice)
888-440-8995 (TTY/NEXTALK)

www.dhs.state.il.us

Programs, activities and employment opportunities in the Illinois Department of Human Services are open and accessible to any individual or group without regard to age, sex, race, sexual orientation, disability, ethnic origin or religion. The department is an equal opportunity employer and practices affirmative action and reasonable accommodation programs.

DHS 4663 (R-08-07) DRS Transition/STEP
Printed by the Authority of the State of Illinois.

100 copies P. .

State of Illinois
Rod R. Blagojevich, Governor

Department of Human Services
Carol L. Adams, Ph.D., Secretary

Transition Services
for Youth with Disabilities

Secondary Transitional Experience Program

