The Institute on Disability and Human Development (IDHD) at the University of Illinois at Chicago is collaborating with the Habilitative Systems to present a webinar session on:

People with Disabilities Ask the Census Expert

Facilitated by:

Angela Accurso,
Coordinator of Public Affairs, Census 2020 Project
Administration Manager, YWCA Metropolitan Chicago

Randa Abdelrahim & Jae Jin Pak,
The Department of Disability and Human Development,
University of Illinois at Chicago

Join us for a Q&A session that will provide a space for people with disabilities to come and ask questions to complete the Census. This session is an opportunity to ask the expert and get questions answered. During this time get support to help complete the 12 questions in the Census. People can hop on and off at any time during the hour to receive support and technical assistance to complete their Census form. Pre-registration is preferred but not required: <https://www.accessibilityonline.org/IDHD>

To join the session on June 23rd please use the following link: <https://us.bbcollab.com/guest/59a960d3795b4d4194a0716d5088c143>

*Before joining the session, we highly recommend watching the introductory webinar (Being Counted in the Census: People with Disabilities). The session is an overview of the importance of people with disabilities being counted in the census. Practical tips and resources for people with disabilities, such as the accessibility of the various options for completing the census, are also discussed.
